IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana women's volleyball team is one of 28 selected for the national finals at the University of Kansas, Lawrence, on Feb. 4-6.

Jody Leslie, UM coach, said the Montana team has been chosen as one of the teams representing the Northwest in the national finals. The team has a 18-5 record.

Miss Leslie said the University team needs $2,500 to cover expenses for the trip and asked that donations be made in care of her at the University of Montana Women's Center, Missoula.

She said the team will compete in a round-robin tourney and play at least seven games.

The team is the first University of Montana women's team to qualify for the national finals.

Team members include Pearl Gregor, Missoula; Karen Holcomb, Seattle; Marilyn Cochran, Missoula; Sally Bell, Rancho, Calif.; Barbara Cockhill, Butte; Ann Cousins, Billings; Jo Van De Mar, Long Island, N.Y. and Kathe Ainsworth, San Diego.

Expenses include transportation, food and lodging.
